- In-salon treatments “Deesse’s Linkage- μ (mu)” and “Inphenom”, the core products of growth strategy, became the leading force in hair care product category. Sales of take-home products “Deesse’s Neu Due” and “Inphenom daily care” also contributed to increased sales of the category.
- Although around November and December was on-season for straightening product, sales of permanent wave product could not achieve the target figure due to various reasons: sales/education personnel could not visit salon well enough due to the hurricane occurred last October, and blackout caused by the hurricane prevented to hold the seminars scheduled during the quarter. Also Los Angeles rep office opened last October unable to ship out products over the week due to the sales management system down, therefore, sales in that area increased only 1.8% year-on-year.

- Sales of take-home products got slow down because the Chinese people became aware of the Senkaku Island issues also tried not to purchase Japanese product. Further, educational activities could not satisfactorily fulfilled because some of training tours coming to Japan and seminars presented by Japanese educator had been cancelled. As a result of those negative factors, sales of the 1st quarter could not reach the target.
- To achieve the annual sales target, be ready to introduce the new product of permanent wave products (Nigelle TG/CMC) and also digital perming solution (Knoteur SH-L). Sales/educational activity is intensified for the salon owners who understand the importance of nurturing hair designer.

- Educational activities was focused on hair coloring products, includes to visit and do trainings in the hair salons and holding various types of seminars. As a result, sales of permanent hair coloring product “Ordeva” has been steadily increased. However, sales of permanent wave products and hair styling product could not reach to the target.
- Three Fieldpersons joined last October were now ready for the field educational activities in the salons. Target salons are specifically selected, and educational activities are reinforced with those new Fieldpersons. Additional colors for Ordeva launched in March have been received well, and further increase of market share is expected.
